Craig SanPietro '69

“Since leaving Caltech in 1969, I have traveled through more than 50 countries, mostly in the third world. This travel has greatly enriched my life and I want to make similar experiences available to Caltech students. Hopefully, this travel can immerse you in unusual cultural and physical situations that challenge you and make you feel more alive.”

Mr. SanPietro passed away last year, but made an additional gift to the prize endowment to show his value of the prize.

Craig launched his own company, Craden Peripherals, manufacturing specialized computer equipment ranging from automated parking systems to dedicated printers for banking applications and Craden printers became the national standard.

Craig SanPietro '69

On his journey to becoming a founder and CEO, Craig also designed a replacement disk drive controller for IBM, returned to Caltech to earn his M.S. and to built an off-road VW, spent three months driving the Pan-American Highway to Panama, designed a 1,000 chip spacecraft telemetry system for NASA, and contributed to the programming for the Lunar Landing Module.

After retiring, Craig worked as a volunteer to restore several nearby 19th century water mills near his home outside of Philadelphia to working condition and took great joy introducing young people to the mechanical workings of those mills, as well as the fresh cornmeal that was their end-product.

Travel Expands Your Horizons

Challenge yourself by going to new locations that are not familiar to you. Do not be afraid to think outside the box! You can travel in the U.S.

Check out in detail what there is to see in a location – don't miss important sites you are not aware of, e.g., Ostia Antica in Rome.

Think about camping versus all hostels or hotels. Use public transport, but also consider walking or cycling as part or the primary part of your experience.

But keep in mind...

- X No buddy trips or tag along trips-one person picks destination & does all the work.
- X No “zigzag” itineraries – stay in one geographic area & don’t have too many countries. One to four countries work best.
- X No adding extensions onto pre-existing travel plans with friends.
- X No “honeymoons” - it is OK to travel with a significant other
- X No hobby trips
- X No political trips
- X No business-oriented trips
- X No expensive activities or luxury travel such as concerts, Michelin starred restaurant meals, expensive day tours, etc.

Other Things to Note

- X No car or motorcycle rental
- X No travel to familiar locations
- X No discovering your roots trips or theme trips that dominate travel such as foodie trips or trying to visit every monastery in France
- X No “cozy” trips, e.g., staying put in one spot
- X No superficial trips, e.g., Scandinavia is not just major cities, i.e., Oslo, Stockholm, Copenhagen
- X No hobby trips, e.g., trip is all about mountain climbing
- X Trip is not adventure travel but should be adventurous for you within your comfort zone. No need to sky dive, etc. You don't need any adventure activities! But it is good to consider doing some cycling, walking, etc.

Other Issues

- Travel in US, one or more countries abroad – but have a sensible plan. Trying to see too much results in a superficial trip! You can't see everything in a large country!
- Best to have your vaccinations up to date & bring masks & wear on the plane and in the airport.
- Applicants will need to check with their insurance policies to make sure they are covered for emergency health coverage in the proposed SanPietro travel countries.
- Applicants must also confirm they have evacuation insurance coverage in case of natural disaster, serious injury, pandemic situation, etc.
- Cannot travel to a country that has a quarantine requirement over 48 hours.
- Travel cannot be deferred to another year for any reason.
- Travel MUST take place during the Caltech summer term.

- Must be in good academic and disciplinary standing throughout prize process— cannot be on leave. For winter and spring terms you must be enrolled & on campus. The prize is forfeit if you go on leave or leave Caltech, for either an individual or for pair travelers.
Also forfeit if one traveler backs out of trip!

- Travel to/from a work or research, etc. destination is not covered.
- If you propose travel to a continent different from the foreign work, research, etc. location, departure must be Home or California unless foreign travel departure is cheaper.

No "double dipping" for travel, cont'd.

- Example. If you are doing research at CERN and want to do a post or pre-CERN trip to Italy, your travel by train, bus or flight to your first destination in Italy and return to Geneva, SZ is paid only—not the travel to and from Geneva from Caltech, other California major airport, or your US home.
- Example. if you work at CERN and want to travel to Belize, only fare from a Calif. or US home destination will be covered—not travel from Geneva to Belize unless cheaper or same!
